CHARGES OF FRAUD IN NORFOLK CASE

Petition Asks That Vote in Three Precincts be Thrown Out.

MANY ALLEGATIONS.

Trehy's Opponents Claim His Friends Marked Ballots, Entering Booths For That Purpose.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 14.—Charging fraud and irregularities, practiced both within and without the polls by partisan of James V. Trehy, and upon so large a scale as to vitiate the entire vote of districts named, the attorneys for the Citizens' party and for Richard W. Peatross, who was Citizens' candidate against Mr. Trehy, have filed in the Corporation Court a petition asking that the vote of the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth precincts in the November 4th elections be thrown out.

The Fifth and Sixth are the precincts comprising the former First ward, the home of Mr. Trehy, while the Eighth is better known as the Courthouse precinct. Each gave heavy majority for Mr. Trehy, and the whole "organization" ticket.

While the allegations of the petition touch the conduct of the election in several precincts, they are chiefly centered upon the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth, where, it is charged, hundreds of ballots were marked illegally and many persons voted whose names do not appear on the registration books.

Specifically, the petition charges in part:

That in the Fifth precinct the ballots of at least 200 persons were illegally marked; that in the Sixth precinct the ballots of at least 250 persons were illegally marked; that in the Fifth and Sixth precincts fifty persons voted whose names do not appear on the registration books; that in the Eighth precinct seventy persons voted whose names do not appear on the registration books.

The petition alleges that in the three precincts referred to the election laws were disregarded in a great measure.

Of the conduct of the election in one of them, where James V. Trehy spent the entire day, it is alleged, the petition gives this description.

E. P. Champlin, a judge and "bitter partisan of the said James V. Trehy," took his place outside the room in which the ballot box was placed and so remained throughout the entire day, that he did this, in persuance of a conspiracy with Trehy, in order that he might "violate the constitution and laws of this State by preparing the ballots of a large number of persons," whose ballots he had no right under the law to see and much less to prepare.

The charge is made that at least 250 ballots were illegally marked in this precinct.

"There were present at said precinct on that day, acting as workers for the said James V. Trehy, one Leon Salzberger and Joseph Caprio," the document avers.

"That the said Champlin and the said Salzberger and th esaid Caprio worked in concert to this end through out the day. That as a person would leave the line of voters, for the purpose of approaching the ballot box, his name would be called out to Champlin by either Salzberg or Caprio with the request that Champlin should take charge of him and prepare his ballot.

"That the said Champlin would always, in respond to such request from Salzberger or Caprio approach the said person and unless forbidden by the latter to do so, would prepare his ballot for him.

"That this illegal conduct took place not only in the election booths, into which the said Champlin would always accompany such persons unless positively forbidden by them to do so, and sometimes even then, but also at times outside of the booths.

It is charged also:

"That not only did the said Champlin thus illegally prepare the ballots of said persons, but that the said James V. Trehy himself, not once but many times, went into the booths with persons who were registered, some of them before and some of them after the first day of January 1904, and prepared their ballots for them."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

When Mrs. M. T. McKaig, a guest at a fashionable East End hotel in Pittsburgh, Pa., arose yesterday morning she discovered that her room had been entered during the night and her jewels, valued at $5,000 had been stolen.

Miss Jessie Wilson's wedding gift from Senators, a silver service, will include a tea service, coffee percolator, compote, vases, candelabra and trays, all fittingly inscribed, and will cost a little more than $1,000. Senator Martine, who is looking after the gift for his colleagues, formally announced its character today.

After an all day search, the bodies of John Ward, 50 years old, and his son George, aged 12, were taken from the Monongahela River near Catawba, W. Va., Wednesday night. The authorities suspect murder, as the bodies bore evidence of rough handling, and they were bruised and the clothing torn, indicating a struggle. The pockets of both had been rifled. A negro is known to have followed Ward and his son to the river bank, where they climbed into a skiff to cross to their home.

With the hope of saving the life of Mrs. Helen Janin, who is suffering from mercurial poisoning, an operation was performed in the S. R. Smith Infirmary at New Brighton, Staten Island, yesterday, which is believed by the physicians to be a new method in combating this poison. The kidneys were taken out, thoroughly washed with antiseptic solution, and were replaced. The operation required 30 minutes. Yesterday evening the patient was resting quietly.

When the Jefferson statue at St. Louis was unveiled last spring the directors of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition sent to the University of Virginia for the orator. Prof. William M. Thornton was the speaker chosen. He delivered a notable address at the unveilling. His subject was "Who Bought Louisiana?" ## DAUGHTERS ELECT STATE OFFICERS

Mrs. W. A. Smoot, of Alexandria, Chosen State Regent.

MRS. MUNFORD'S TALK.

Urges Co-Operative System of Education in Virginia—Convention Endorses Movement.

Richmond, Nov. 14.—The election of officers of the Daughters of the American Revolution was the most important business to come before the convention at its closing session yesterday afternoon. Following a close balloting Mrs. J. W. Jamison was elected vice-president-general.

Other officers elected at the meeting were: Mrs. J. H. Maupin, State regent; Mrs. W. A. Smoot, of Alexandria, state vice-regent; Mrs. Robert Gray, re-elected State secretary; Mrs. George H. Shackelford, State treasurer, and Mrs. Arthur Kyle Davis, historian.

Mrs. B. B. Munford was introduced to the convention at the conclusion of the business session that she might present to the Daughters the movement to introduce the co-operative system of education in Virginia. At the close of her address the convention unanimously endorsed the move, several speaking in favor of it from the floor.

In part Mrs. Munford said: "The co-operative idea of education was first started in Virginia by the Federation of Woman's clubs, and has received the endorsement of the United Daughters of the Confederacy as well as that of many of the foremost educators in this and foreign countries. It is not proposed to have co-education. The idea is simply to give the girls of the State the advantages of the University facilities such as library, laboratories, and teachers, which have been supplied the young men, and which the young women stand so greatly in need of.

"The women of the country are becoming intelligent to the needs of women's education, and are realizing that if the women are to retain their place in the affairs of the world they must be trained for constructive work as well as along social lines. They must be fitted to take their places no matter where they may be, and the increasing number of our high schools and consequently the increased number of teachers requires that additional training be given them. They must be trained for home life as well, for they must be prepared for companionship with man, and for the motherhood of the next generation."

Jones and four other men were operating the car at Hilliard road, near Lakeside, when it was derailed. Jones was badly cut about his head, from the effects of which he never recovered.

Another colored man, William Lewis, was severely injured in his back and leg.

The other occupants of the car were shaken up, but were able to go to their homes.

AFTER ARMOR PLANT.

Alexandria Has a Next-Door Neighbor as Competitor.

The board of governors of the Retail Merchants' Association of Washington, last night decided to send a letter to the President asking that the proposed $9,000,000 government-owned armor plant be built in the capital city. A resolution was unanimously passed to indorse the campaign to obtain the armor plant for Washington. It is suggested by the merchants that the plant be built on the government land adjoining Great Falls. The resolution points out that thousands of dollars might be saved by utilizing the power of Great Falls.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies speeches were made by Senator W. H. Thompson, of Kansas and Assistant Secretary Lanier, of the Interior Department. George W. Zachary, tiler of the lodge, gave an instructive lecture on the relics of General Washington and Lafayette contained in the lodge room.

Church Houses for Dance Halls.

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 14 —A more extensive employment of church property for the benefit of the community, including the using of parish houses as dance halls, was urged by Prof. William B. Bailey, of Yale, before the general conference of Congregational churches of Connecticut.

"I know it will wear out the carpets," he said, "but to preserve its carpets is not the chief end of the church's existence."

PRESIDENT WORKS ON PEACE PLAN

Administration Convinced Huerta Will Come To Terms.

AWAITING ADVICES.

Wants Ideas From O'Shaughnessey, Hale and Foreign Powers as to Settling Mexican Trouble.

Washington, Nov. 14 — President Wilson awaited news this morning from three sources likely to add further encouragement to his belief that the Mexican situation is rapidly lending itself to peaceful adjustment. These sources were Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City, Dr. William Bayard Hale at Nogales, and the foreign powers.

Huerta is to be brought to terms through his friends, according to the belief current this morning in Administration circles. That active negotiations with these friends have reached a point where a settlement of the difficulties seems imminent, is the reason given for President Wilson's sudden optimism. According to belief here, supported by persons in close touch with the Washington agents of the Huerta faction, the plan upon which President Wilson is now working is as follows: A list of four or five prominent Mexicans, acceptable to, but not allied with the Huerta faction, has been obtained from those friends of Huerta who are now advising him to make his peace with the United States.

TROUBLE AMONG DAUGHTERS.

Delegates at Odds Over Endowing Chair of Southern History.

New Orleans, Nov. 14.—Whether the United Daughters of the Confederacy would contribute $50,000 to establish a chair of Southern history in the Peabody Institute for training teachers was a snag on which the convention hung for a confusing half hour yesterday. It was impossible to settle the matter on the convention floor, and through a compromise the matter was put into the hands of a special committee.

In her report for the committee on education, Miss Mary B. Poppenheim, chairman, recommended that the proposal to raise the $50,000 be abandoned, as so much monument work had been undertaken, &c. The recommendation brought strenuous protest. It was with difficulty that President General White kept a semblance of order, and even then many women were talking at one time.

Mrs. C. B. Tate, the treasurer general, reported that there is $13,000 in the treasury.

After it was announced that Miss Hortense Herman, of Baltimore, had won the 1913 prize of $100 for her essay on "The Rank and File of the Confederacy," it was unanimously voted to offer the same prize for next year's contest.

From all appearances only two candidates will be nominated for the office of president general. It is said that many of the delegates are leaning toward Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, of Mississippi, in her race against Mrs. N. L. Eller, of Virginia. It is said that this is because the Virginia delegation is anxious to return Mrs. C. B. Tate as treasurer general and many do not believe two general officers should be elected from the same State.

Last night the delegates were entertained at the French opera.

A singular honor was bestowed upon Mrs. L. H. Raines, who resigned her position as custodian general of crosses of honor. She was elected to the office of referee of crosses of honor for life.

He is survived by a brother, William Spratley who is an inmate of the Confederate Soldiers' Home Richmond.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Fifteen Killed and Two Hundred Injured in Railroad Accident.

Clayton, Ala., Nov. 14.—Fifteen persons are known to have been killed and more than 200 injured—six fatally and many seriously—near here yesterday, when a Central of Georgia excursion train was wrecked. The authorities say that several more bodies may be buried in the debris, and that the death list might reach a score.

The train, which was en route, Ozark to Eufaula, where the county raid opened yesterday, was traveling at a high rate of speed, when the three rear coaches were whipped off the track on a curve and plunged down a forty-foot embankment. The wooden coaches, loaded to capacity, were otrn to bits. Hardly a passenger escaped uninjured.

Several bodies were so badly mutilated that identification will be impossible. Because of the lack of physicians many of the seriously injured were forced to suffer for hours with no medical attention other than that given by amateurs.

Torrential rains, accompanied by gales, are being experienced throughout France, especially on the eastern coast. In many districts the rivers are rising with unprecedented rapidity and causing floods.

THOUSANDS OF MEN ON A STRIKE

Members of Train Crews Quit Work at Hour Appointed.

MEN LEAVE ENGINES.

Strike-Breakers Quartered in New Orleans and Keady to Run Trains, Peaceful Conditions so Far.

New Orleans, La. Nov. 14 —Between 3,000 and 4,000 engineers, conductors, trainmen, and firemen quit work at 7 o'clock sharp last night on what is known as the Sunset Division of the Southern Pacific railroad, extending from here to El Paso. The strike promises to be one of the biggest in the history of American railroading.

The strike comes after more than six months of futile negotiations which sought an amicable adjustment of difficulties between the company and the men, largely concerning wages and hours.

An eleventh-hour appeal to the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation by the railroad failed to stop the walkout. Telegraphic advices today from every important point along the line say that the men obeyed the strike order almost without exception.

The strike threatens to result in enormous loss to sugar and cotton planters, although railroad officials promise to use every effort to move the crops, which must be handled soon.

Both the Houston Express and the Sunset Limited, the latter the through train to Los Angeles, were annulled. A thousand strike-breakers are in the city. Twelve hundred local employes of the railroad quit their jobs.

For several days the men contemplating a strike had been protesting against the quartering of strike-breakers in the city, although the whereabouts of the imported men had been kept secret. The main shops of the Southern Pacific are in Algiers across the river from New Orleans. A large force of police has been sent there, and Police Superintendent Reynolds held a force of fifty reserves at the Harbor Precinct Station.

The railroad men left their work quietly. In many cases engines were left standing wherever they were at the hour of the strike, although there were instances where the locomotives were taken on to the roundhouses.

The crew of a freight train that was between Algiers and Gretna went on strike at the announced hour, and walked into Algiers. The men have been admonished by union officials not to attempt violence. Extra deputy sheriffs are guarding the Southern Pacific ferry at Avondale.

HIS DREAM VANISHES.

Stock Broker Wants Divorce From Actress Wife.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Fritz Von Frantzius, stock broker and art critic, told tearfully in the superior court yesterday the real story of the dissolution of his dream of happiness with Clarissa Sabaret Rose Von Frantzius, a dancer He was seeking a divorce.

A woman whose beauty he admired in a picture and whom he sought out, wooed, and married, left him in Atlantic City six days after their marriage, saying she could not abandon the stage.

She went to Europe, wrote she would not return, then came with Jose Florido as a dancing mate, and came to Chicago. His chauffeur told him Mrs. Von Frantzius, who refused to live at his home at 827 John street, and stayed at the Bismarck Hotel, evidently admired her dancing partner. With detectives and his attorney the sobbing broker said, he visited the hotel.

They heard sounds like kissing coming from Florido's room, opened the door, and found his wife with Florido, it was alleged. Judge Sullivan took the case under advisement.

FROM LITERARY FUND

Alexandria Public Schools Will Receive $1,950. 12 From This Source

The apportionment of what is known as the literary, or school fund, No. 2—which is the appropriation of the general assembly under act of March, 1912, and the accrued interest—was announced in Richmond yesterday by the state board of education.

The total amount of the fund—$325,028.62—is the same as last year and the per capita, of course, identical—5,275.

With the direct appropriation for public schools the total per capita appropriated by the State for each child is $2.6515.

Alexandria city will receive $1,930.12, which with $7,771.71 received from the direct tax fund will be $9,701.83.

Alexandria last year received from the direct school tax $7,360.44 and $1,729.12 from the literary fund making a total of $9,089.56.

Alexandria county will receive $1,531.86 from the literary fund, and $6,168.10 from the general tax.

FINED AND IMPRISONED.

Negro Arraigned for Stealing Two Suit Cases From Stranger—Will go on Roads.

Andrew Foote, colored, was arrested yesterday on the charge of stealing two suit cases from Gideon Cramer, a stranger. According to the evidence, Cramer, who had been drinking, was decoyed by Foote on Fairfax street extended, near the Old Dominion Glass Works, where he laid down, and while asleep Foote took possession of the suit case.

The officers later arrested Foote, who, after some questioning, acknowledged he took the cases and told the officers they were in an ark near the outlet lock of the old Alexandria Canal.

Foote was brought into the Police Court this morning when Cramer in his statement said he stretched himself on the ground in the neighborhood of the glass works, and when he awoke his suit cases had disappeared. He also testified that several articles which they had contained were missing.

Foote was finally asked if he had anything to say. He plead guilty as charged and asked for clemency. Justice Caton fined him $50 and sentenced him to serve six months in jail. This makes him eligible for the roads.

FINED IN CUTTING CASE

Three Negroes Assessed $20. Each—Witness Sent to Jail For Sixty Days

The case of John Blanheim, colored, charged with using a razor on Wesley Watkins, colored, near the corner of Princess and Pitt streets Wednesday night, and continued yesterday, was investigated this morning in the Police Court. The officers yesterday arrested Herman Jackson, colored, who, it was alleged, was with Watkins when he assaulted Blanheim.

Witnesses testified that Watkins and Jackson knocked Blanheim down and kicked him, and also that a young woman named Eliza Rollins urged them on in the assault.

Justice Caton imposed a fine of twenty dollars upon Blanheim for malicious cutting, and the same sum upon Watkins and Jackson for assault. The Rollins woman was sent to jail for sixty days for perjury, it being shown by other witnesses that she made false statements to the court and that she attempted to throw the officers off the scent when they were searching for Jackson yesterday.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Lee Archer to be Electrocuted on December 5.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 14.—The Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday refused to interfere in the case of Lee Archer, convicted in Princess Anne County of criminal assault. He has been twice respited by the Governor in order to give time for his attorneys to lay the case before the Supreme Court. Archer is now under sentence of death on December 5

In the case of A. Craig Atkinson against the Commonwealth, it appearing to the court that Atkinson is now a fugitive from justice, the writ of error and supersedeas heretofore awarded, was dismissed with costs. Atkinson is wanted in Southampton County.

Attorneys for Elizabeth P. Thaxton appeared before the court and asked for a peremptory writ of mandamus directed against Horace Adams, clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince Edward County, directing him to deliver to her or to her counsel a transcript of the record prepared in the case of Thaxton against Anderson and Hudgins. The petition was docketed and advanced for hearing on the privileged docket, the defendant being allowed to file demurrer and answer.

In the petition of Silas Lohr on appeal from a decree of the Circuit Court of Madison County, on July 15, in his case against Johnson and others, the court after consideration of the record decided that the lower court was plainly right, and a writ of error and supersedeas was refused.

In the case of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railway Company against Frederick Bender, from the Circuit Court of Southampton County, a writ of error and supersedeas was refused.

In the case of J. M. Culbreth against the State Board of Accountancy, from the Law and Equity Court of the City of Richmond, a writ of error and supersedeas was refused.

In the case of the George A. Fuller Company, against Van Horn, trading as the Clifton Forge Marble and Granite Works from the Circuit Court of Bath County, a writ of error and supersedeas was refused.

R. W. Carrington and N. S. Turnbull, Jr. qualified to practice before the Supreme Court.

Youth Confesses Theft.

Danville, Va., Nov., 14—Edwin S. Silsberger, formerly assistant postmaster at Pocahontas, was sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary for embezzling eleven thousand dollars of government funds. He pleaded guilty.

The youth said that his salary was insufficient to keep him and his wife and child, and he stole small amounts at frequent intervals until the shortage reached $400. Then he disappeared with the contents of two registered packages amounting to eleven thousand dollars.

He went with his wife to Cleveland, Ohio, and there was arrested by federal officers. Ten thousand dollars of the stolen money was recovered and the remaining thousand the youth, who is but twenty-one years old, has promised to pay off at intervals.

ANXIOUS TO PAY PENALITY.

No Doubt Now That Fritzinger's Story of Wife-Murder is True. ..

Norfolk, Va., November 12 —Any doubt that might have existed in the minds of the local police that Oscar Fritzinger, of Lehighton, Pa., was not telling the truth when he confessed to the murder of his wife by drowning after he had surrendered himself at police headquarters last Tuesday night, has been dispelled.

In reply to a letter written yesby Major Kizer, a telegram was received here yesterday afternoon from C. C. Vetzer, district attorney of Welsport, Pa., stating that Fritzinger is badly wanted there, and asking that he be held until an officer arrives for him. It was stated in the telegram that the officer would be sent at once.

Fritzinger is now in jail. He said he pushed his wife into Lehigh Canal after a quarrel in June, 1906 and that since he joined the Salvation Army last Sunday night, his conscience had given hi m no rest. Fritzinger says he wants to go back to Lehighton and pay the penalty for his crime. "I cannot stand the suspense any longer," he cried. "I can hear my wife calling to me to help her out of the canal. I turned away and left her to drown. I want to tell my story to the Lehighton police."

Fritzinger told the officers that he had married a second time, about four years after murdering his wife. But that he has since secured a divorce from his second wife, and that she is living in the West. He said he married her under the name of John Day. Her name was Maragret Diavolo, and she had been divorced from her first husband. He became acquainted with her through a matrimonial bureau. Fitzinger says he has corresponded with several other women through the matrimonial bureau. He said he had entertained hopes of marrying a woman with plenty of money. A number of letters were found in his two valises from women in different parts of the country, showing that he has been carrying on an extensive correspondence.

The pony was thrown a distance of 35 feet, and the boys dragged by the car several yards before it was stopped. Both the motorman and conductor were put under arrest to await investigation. The dead boys are members of prominent families.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

With the civilized world anxiously seeking a specific for Lung Trouble, the number of recoveries brought about through the use of Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, is attracting universal attention. For fifteen years Eckman's Alterative has been used and the reports of recoveries in many supposed hopeless cases indicate that this medicine is doing a vast amount of good. Read this:—

33 B St., Keyser, W. Va.

"Gentlemen: I was taken sick in November, 1908, with a very bad cold and dizzy spells. The doctor then pronounced my case as Malaria Fever. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations held over me, and the verdict was that the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. So I began on your Alterative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 23, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever."

(Signed) MRS. H. K. BRILEY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

Wells was 45 years old, and leaves a wife and six children.

WILSON AVERSE TO LONG MESSAGES.

President Wilson announces that he will read in person his first annual message to Congress. He indicates that no such long and voluminous messages as have heretofore been sent by Presidents to Congress will be prepared by him. It is considered likely that he will deal briefly with the chief subjects upon which he believes Congress should act at the regular session, leaving it to the annual reports of the Cabinet officers to reflect his views on department matters.

While Julius Caesar broke the record for epigrammatic messages, when his report to the Roman Senate contained but three words—"Veni, vidi, vici" Ulysses S. Grant comes second. He had great antipathy to long public documents, believing in brevity in his public announcements When he was inaugurated as President of the United States his speech was couched in few words and to the point, and later on, when surrounded by a crowd who demanded a speech, especially at night, he advised his friends to go home and to bed, as the hour was growing late.

In ante bellum days presidents and governors were liberal patrons of printer's ink. The first annual message of Andrew Johnson filled nearly a page and a third of the Alexandria Gazette, and Gilbert C Walker in December, 1869, sent a still longer document to the Virginia Legislature.

The message of Henry A. Wise to the same body crowded everything else out of Virginia dailies, and elongated public documents in those days were styled "Henry A. Wise productions."

President Wilson, very sensibly realizes the fact that we are living in another era, when time is abreviated at both ends and contracted in the middle, and when public documents are not studied nor read as in the days of old.

During the gloomy four years' war, when the Gazette, in an abbreviated form, struggled at a pecuniary sacrifice to keep up the annals of Alexandria, the elder Snowden, then in his prime, instituted a department with the laconic headline, "Multum in Parvo" much in little He was a handy man with the scissors and gave the heart of all of interest that transpired in the world at that time in a space which would fill about half a column of the present Gazette.

EGGS STILL SOARING.

Selling in Alexandria Cheaper Than Elsewhere in the Market.

There has been but little change in the market during the past week except that things have taken an upward turn and prices are higher But there has not been as great a change as expected. Eggs continue to soar and the very lowest quotation for fresh eggs today was 44 cents. Many of the dealers ask 50 cents for fresh eggs that they guarantee and this is the prevailing price in Washington and other markets.

There is a plentiful supply of vegetables in the market, all of the stable and seasonable goods being on sale. Cauliflower is abundant and excellent heads can be bought from 15 to 20 cents.

To prevent disease- resist disease germs

SMALLPOX is prevented by vaccination — the injection of vaccine.
DIPHTHERIA is prevented by the injection of anti-toxin.
These enable the body to produce substances which prevent the growth of smallpox and diphtheria germs in the blood.
There are many other diseases, nearly, if not quite as dangerous, and far more common — typhoid fever, the grippe, bronchitis, pneumonia, catarrh, rheumatism, and a score of others — that can be prevented less painfully and more easily by making the body strong to resist germ infection.

Olive Oil Emulsion

(With Hypophosphites)

Is designed for the prevention as well as the relief of disease — by enabling the body to overcome the germs. It, at the same time, strengthens and tones the nerves, nourishes the blood, puts the entire system into a proper healthy condition to combat and successfully resist disease.

Every person not in perfect health has incipient germs of some distressing ailment in his or her system.

Cold weather, over-work, excesses of any kind, are liable to bring about just the conditions under which those latent disease germs will get the upper hand, and put you on your back "down sick."

You who are run-down, tired-out, nervous—

You who, though not sick enough to give up, still don't feel good—

You who are apparently well, and want to stay well—

Take home a bottle of Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion today, and use it as a means to get well and keep well.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is a real nerve-food tonic.

In this it is different from most other so-called "tonics" which either have no food value and do nothing more than temporarily stimulate you, leaving you in a worse condition than before or, having food value, still are so unpleasant to take that many people can't keep them down.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is pleasant to take. The Hypophosphites it contains tone the nerves. The pure Olive Oil nourishes both nerves and blood Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion strengthens you, puts snap and ginger and vitality into your system. It makes you feel better and stronger. It improves your digestion and your bowel action.

It contains no alcohol nor any dangerous or habit forming drugs.

It is guaranteed to be just as represented above — to do all that is claimed above — to satisfy you in every way, or your money back without quibble or question.

Enough for full two weeks' treatment. $1.00.

Sold only at The Rexall Stores — the World's greatest Drug Stores — and always with a full guarantee of complete satisfaction, or your money back.
